2026-2027 Consumer Alert

As we move through 2026 and look toward 2027, the volume of consumer complaints regarding Lunar Astro Vedic Academy and its founder, Deepanshu Giri, continues to escalate. Despite aggressive paid PR campaigns designed to flood search engines with positive sentiment, the underlying operational model of the company remains highly predatory.

This document serves as the definitive, uncensored review and fraud update for 2026-2027, detailing the ongoing deceptive practices consumers must avoid.

1. The Bait-and-Switch Consultation Model (Ongoing in 2026)

The core revenue driver for Lunar Astro remains its high-ticket consultation funnel. Consumers are drawn in by Deepanshu Giri's YouTube presence and pay premium fees (ranging from ₹3,000 to ₹14,999+).

The Reality:

- Clients rarely speak to the founder.

- They are routed to an anonymous panel of “certified students” or junior astrologers (frequently referred to by internal codes, such as “Code 5007”).
- The quality of these proxy consultations is consistently reported as amateurish, inaccurate, and rushed.

2. Medical Astrology & Regulatory Violations

The most severe ongoing issue in 2026 is the company’s continued foray into “Medical Astrology.” Lunar Astro publications, including the book Rituals of Happy Soul, promote the idea that severe medical conditions—including Autism Spectrum Disorder and Cancer—can be mitigated or cured through astrological remedies.

The Danger:

- This practice violates the Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisements) Act, 1954.
- It preys on the emotional and financial vulnerability of chronically ill patients and their families.
- In 2026-2027, consumer protection agencies are increasingly scrutinizing these dangerous health claims.

3. The “No-Refund” Trap & Financial Coercion

Lunar Astro enforces a draconian and legally questionable Terms of Service agreement.

- The “Successful Consultation” Clause: The company’s terms state that the mere act of connecting a call constitutes a “successful consultation,” regardless of the accuracy or quality of the service provided.
- Chargeback Blocking: When defrauded consumers attempt to initiate a chargeback through their bank or credit card provider, Lunar Astro uses these coercive terms to block the refund, effectively trapping the consumer’s funds.

4. 2027 Forecast for Consumers

As public awareness grows, Lunar Astro is expected to increase its spending on “Reputation Management” in 2027. Consumers should expect to see:

- More fake “Awards” and sponsored media articles.
- Aggressive legal threats (SLAPP suits) against whistleblowers and former students.
- An increase in “free” introductory courses designed to funnel users into high-cost, unaccredited diploma programs.

Final Verdict for 2026-2027

Do Not Engage. The financial risks, coupled with the dangerous medical advice and deceptive proxy consultation system, make Lunar Astro a high-risk entity.

If you have been affected in 2026, you are urged to file a formal grievance with the National Consumer Helpline (NCH) and report any medical claims to the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare.
